W. O. Mitchell during his visit to the school.

Canadian author visits Isaac Newton

W. O. Mitchell visited Isaac Newton School on October 16, and made a presentation to Grade 9, two Grade 7 and two Grade 8 classes in the gym.

In his two-period presentation, Mr. Mitchell encouraged the students to do creative writing for which the preparation consists of writing down "bits and pieces" as they come to mind. These bits should later be used to do a finished piece of writing. His motto is, "Write every day, every week, every month of the year."

Mr. Mitchell dramatized one of his stories and told students about his books. All in attendance seemed to appreciate the presentation very much as evidenced by the many questions asked at the end of the talk. The talk was recorded on cassette tape for later use.

Mr. Mitchell was born in Weyburn, Saskatchewan, March 13, 1914. He is the author of Jake and the Kid, Who Has Seen the Wind, The Kite and the recently released The Vanishing Point. He also wrote two scripts: Willie Mc- Krimmon's Black Bonspiel and The Devil's Instrument. During his first year of teaching he wrote a script for a film entitled Alien Thunder.

The students of I.N.S. are hoping to have Mr. Mitchell make a return visit while he is still in Winnipeg. It is believed this is the first time a man of this calibre in writing has been hired by the Winnipeg School Division. It is part of a centennial project.

The author promised some students that he would be back to work with them.

Ted Jablonski

New Student President

Ted Jablonski of 9-03 was elected president of the I.N.S. student body on October 3. He won over candidates Sandra Herman and Marianne Iwanciw.

In an interview Ted said, "Since I was in Grade 7, I have seen many changes at Isaac Newton School and I'm sure it is getting much better all the time. There are many changes even since last year."

To the questions asked by the reporters, Ted replied as follows:

Q. What are some of the changes you intend to bring about this year?

A. I would like to see a general clean-up of the school undertaken by the students. I'd also like to have announcements made in the lunch room every day to inform the students of the activities going on. We're thinking of having the use of a radio during the lunch period.

Q. Why do you think you won the election? What did you say at the pep rally?

A. I really don't know why I won. Perhaps the students know me from last year. All I told the student body was that I'd try to do my best to carry out their wishes.

Q. Do you like being the president?

A. Yes. It's kind of exciting.

Q. Is it a difficult task being a school president?

A. I have extra responsibilities. Often I have to see the principals or the teachers before classes begin or after classes are over. I have to attend more meetings than an ordinary student. It's not that difficult, but I find that I am busy all the time.

Q. Has your new position helped you make new friends?

A. I did meet a few new people, but I don't know if I would call them my friends. As a school representative I do get an opportunity to meet some members of the Winnipeg School Division. Recently I met Mr. Keith Cooper, the superintendent of our school area. I believe I'll be meeting many more people during the year.

As members of Isaac Newton School for the third year, we are aware of the reasons why Teddy was elected. He has always been an excellent student in both the academic and the athletic fields. He is a recipient of many awards including the individual junior high science award at the Greater Winnipeg Annual Science Fair last year.

Pre Election Pep Rally

A pre-election pep rally was held for all the students and teachers at I.N.S. gym on October 2. Mr. Ramsoomair acted as Master of Ceremonies. The school choir, band, and the cheerleaders kept the program lively.

Presidential and vice-presidential candidates were each given a few minutes in which to talk to the student body. Each one was introduced by his or her campaign manager. Each candidate said he/she would try to do his/her best to make I.N.S. a good place in which to work.

Candidates for president were:
Sandra Herman — introduced by Karen

Staub.

Ted Jablonski — introduced by Phyllis Finch.

Marianne Iwanciw — introduced by Luba Krywj.

Candidates for vice-president were:

Candie Brown — introduced by Debbie Wiebe.

Report from student council

by Ted Jablonski — 9-03

The student council has held two formal meetings since the elections. The first meeting was held to acquaint the student council members with the proper proceedings of a meeting. Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Cianflone were present to assist with the running of the meeting. Phyllis Finch was elected unanimously as secretary of the council.

The second meeting was run exclusively by the class representatives, led by the president, Ted Jablonski, who acted as chairman.

Committee heads were chosen for various jobs and the present business of running the school was discussed.

Pamela Parsons and Candie Brown were chosen to head the School Dance Committee. Anything concerning dances should be reported first to these two people.

Marianne Iwanciw was elected chairman of Clean-Up Committee.

Teresa Rose was chosen to act as head of the Daily Lunch Room Cleaning Committee.

All the members have been most co-operative and much progress has already been made.

Future Student Council Meetings will be held on a staggered schedule once per cycle to avoid inconvenience for staff and students: Day 4, Period 6; Day 3, Period 5; Day 5, Period 6; Day 6, Period 4. Later on in the year meetings will be held every two cycles.

New vice-principal

E. UnRuh

by Cathy Scott — 8-09

Mr. Ernie UnRuh is the new vice-principal of Isaac Newton School. He comes with a wide experience in working with young people. Since his first teaching job in 1945, he has worked in a variety of schools; Aberdeen junior high was the last school before he came here.

Indian Reservation and Stoney Mountain Penitentiary are included in his teaching experience. Mr. UnRuh recalls the friendliness and the quietness of students on the Reservation. His six children attended school along with the Indian children. They enjoyed school and Mr. UnRuh said, "I don't see any visible difference between students on the Reservation and the students here." While teaching there, Mr. UnRuh was made Honorary Chief of Manitoba.

At the penitentiary Mr. UnRuh worked mostly with the 16 to 23 age group and with the Native Brotherhood organization. The Native Brotherhood is a club composed of Indian people who are concerned about their problems and want to help improve conditions for themselves and for other native people. Improving educational opportunities, housing, job opportunities and, in general, upgrading the image of the native in society are the concerns of the Native Brotherhood.

With only five teachers at the penitentiary there was always a long waiting list of people to be taught.

Mr. UnRuh was born in Lucky Lake, Saskatchewan, where he received his early education. He obtained his B.A. from the University of Manitoba and his B.Ed. in Saskatoon. He looks back at the different places where he has taught and finds each school has been a pleasant place in which to work with students.

At the present time Mr. UnRuh is involved in the Youth Action Centre. He enjoys sports and work with students and staff at Isaac Newton School. He hopes that the Student Council will come up with another good program this year.

Parent-Teacher student committee

The second joint meeting of parents, teachers and students of Isaac Newton School was held on November 10 at 8.00 p.m. Mr. Keith Cooper, Area Two Superintendent, was present.

A consultative committee was elected for the 1974-75 term.

Teachers volunteering to serve on this committee submitted their names at the last staff meeting. These are: Mr. White, Mrs. Paley, Mr. Badiuk, Miss Motheral, Mr. Solomon, Mr. Rosenblatt, Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Enns. Parents' and students' names were added to the group at this meeting.

Symphony Orchestra visits school

by Patricia Garrity — 8-33

Classes were called down to the I.N.S. gym at the beginning of Period 5 on October 31 to hear the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra perform. Students who didn't want to attend the concert stayed in Rooms 21 and 22.

Those who attended had an opportunity to enjoy the sounds of a top-notch orchestra performing pieces from foreign countries. Among these was The Roman Carnival. It was a pleasant afternoon which ended with an early dismissal from school.

New teachers at Isaac Newton

Douglas Moore

William Badiuk

Jack Solomon

by Cathy Scott — 8-09

Mr. Douglas Moore of Room 31 has ideas he wants to use in helping students who have special needs. At the present time he is working with students who had a poor attendance record last year. He hopes these students will be placed in regular classes soon.

Last year Mr. Moore taught at the Child Guidance Clinic, Learning Assistance Centre, and at St. John's High School. He is enjoying his work this year at Isaac Newton and plans to organize a speech choir along with the drama that he does during activity periods.

One of four children in the family, he was born in the Rural Municipality of Woodlands, Manitoba, where he was educated.

He started teaching in 1959 in Calvin School in Portage la Prairie. He is married and has two small children. Mr. Moore lives at Stonewall from where he commutes to school every day. In his spare time he enjoys hunting, curling and photography.

Mr. William Badiuk, language arts teacher in Grades 7 and 8, comes from King Edward School. He is a very active teacher who is interested in both students and teachers at I.N. He works on many committees, among them being the Professional Development Committee. He is on the planning committee for the new King Edward School. During activity periods he teaches a guitar class. In his leisure time, Mr. Badiuk enjoys choral singing, reading and furniture refinishing.

Mr. Badiuk was born in Gardenton, Manitoba, where he attended a one-room country school and a small high school in the village of Gardenton for his grades 9-12. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Manitoba.

Before coming to I.N.S. he taught at Gardenton, Sandy Hook, St. Marks, Gypsumville, King Edward School, and one year at an Indian Day School at Shamattawa. He also taught English to new Canadians at Gordon Bell and R. B. Russell.

Mr. Badiuk lives in St. James. He is married and has three children — a girl, Grade 4, a boy, Grade 7, and another boy, Grade 1.

by Reba MacKinnon — 7-02

Mr. Jack Solomon, who shares his I.N. headquarters with Mr. Badiuk and Mrs. Lee in the Material Resource Room, teaches Grade 8 language arts, Grade 8 mathematics and Grade 9 mathematics. He is the coach of the junior boys volleyball team. During the activity period he works with the Current Events Club.

Mr. Solomon says that he enjoys I.N.S. because both the teachers and students have made him feel welcome.

FOUR YEARS OF TEACHING AT STRATHCONA

He spent his four years of teaching at Strathcona School with Grades 4, 5, and 6.

Presently Mr. Solomon is attending evening classes at the University of Winnipeg. He was born in 1948 and attended North End schools — Champlain, H. C. Avery, Jefferson Junior High and Garden City High School. Mr. Solomon enjoys bowling, golfing, cribbage and woodwork in his spare time. He is married.

Editorial

by Patricia Garrity — 8-33

By now the 1974-75 school term is in full swing, and it looks like it's going to be another exciting year at Isaac Newton.

The students have more options to choose from in their studies and the variety of activities offered shouldn't leave anyone saying he has nothing to do. Thanks to the teachers, many new activities have been added this year, among which are outdoor education, T.V. Club, German Club, bowling, automotive course, Native handicrafts and others.

The Newtonian Press editorial staff is particularly happy about this year's extra reading program; this is referring to the Uninterrupted Sustained Silent Reading (U.S.S.R.). The 18 minutes spent daily in free reading adds up to quite a few hours over the days. Several students have read a few books since the program began.

One upsetting thing in the school was the filthy way in which the lunch room was left by students. However, since the students have taken more responsibility, there is less litter. Let's work together on this so that we may continue having the use of a clean lunch room, and that we may truly have a good year.
